ABOUT US

MARBLE...

The symbol of wealth and prosperity, which took millions of years to form and which has been one of the indispensable building blocks of mankind for centuries due to its elegance, beauty and durability...

Mesopotamia, Egypt, Persian, Greek, Roman, Seljuk and Ottoman and many other civilizations have used marble in their monuments, sculptures and structures that have survived to the present day and shed light on their ages.

Egyptian temples, Greek acropolises, Roman amphitheatres, medieval castles, Gothic style cathedrals, Renaissance artifacts, palaces, baths, mosques and fountains of the Seljuk and Ottoman periods, train stations, airports, administration buildings in the modern era, shopping malls and residences are now unthinkable without marble.

Marble has become the most noble building material of architecture for centuries due to its easy processing, aesthetic appearance, resistance to harsh weather conditions, high load-bearing power, abundant presence in nature and antibacterial properties.

Turkey is located in a region that has had the richest marble resources in The World since the Roman, Mediterranean and Anatolian civilizations and today is a country having strategic importance which incorporates approx. 35 to 40% of total global marble reserve.

MERMER...

Oluşumu milyonlarca yıl süren, asırlardan beri insanoğlunun zerafeti, güzelliği ve dayanıklılığı nedeniyle vazgeçilmez yapı taslarından biri olan zenginliğin ve refahın simgesi...

Mezopotamya, Mısır, Pers, Yunan, Roma, Selcuklu ve Osmanlı ve diğer bir çok medeniyet günümüze kadar gelen ve çağlarına ışık tutan anıtlarında, heykellerinde ve yapılarında kullanmışlardır mermeri.

Mısır tapınakları, Yunan akropoller, Roma devrine ait amfi-tiyatrolar, orta çağın şatoları, Gotik tarzı katedraller, Rönesans'a ait eserler, Selçuklu ve Osmanlı devrinin saray, hamam, cami ve çeşmelerinden sonra modern çağda da tren istasyonları, havaalanları, yönetim binaları, alışveriş merkezleri ve konutlar artık mermersiz düşünülemez olmuştur.

Kolay işlenebilmesi, estetik görünüşü, sert hava koşullarına dayanıklı olması, taşıyıcı gücünün fazlalığı, doğada bol miktarda bulunması ve antibakteriyel özelliği nedeniyle mermer, yüzyıllar boyunca mimarinin en soylu yapı malzemesi haline gelmiştir.

Türkiye, Roma, Akdeniz ve Anadolu medeniyetlerinden beri süregelen zaman zarfında Dünyanın en zengin mermer kaynaklarına sahip olmuş bir bölgede konumlanmış ve bugün itibarıyla dünya toplam mermer rezervinin %35-40 ini barındıran madencilikte stratejik bir öneme sahip ülkesi durumundadır.
